About the trip

Author's travel agency Go to Star invites you to Jordan.

Jordan is a true Arabian fairy tale, a kingdom whose queen is recognized as the most beautiful in the whole world. A holy land that has been a silent witness to the great biblical events, and when you travel through it, it's as if you're leafing through the Bible, immersed in religious mysteries.

A land of deserts made famous around the world thanks to Hollywood. The fantastic "lunar" landscapes have become the setting for famous scenes from "Star Wars", "Transformers", "The Martian," "Aladdin," and most recently "Dune."

And to the ancient city of Petra still seeks for adventurers and treasure hunters, like the heroes of Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade Crusade." A country where new wonders of the world are juxtaposed with numerous UNESCO World Heritage sites.

The beauty of the fabulous Arab world, otherworldly landscapes, bathing in the healing Dead Sea, amazing service, and exotic gastronomy. Discover a world of treasures and ancient legends with Go to Star!

Petra

This ancient city is not only a treasure Jordan, and the whole world, recognized as one of the new seven wonders of the world. Petra was inscribed directly into the rock massif thousands of years ago, but the city was lost in the sands for centuries, until an orientalist discovered it in 1812 Burkhardt. Thousands of brave travelers tried to find secret treasures and the holy Grail here, solving numerous riddles of descendants. Feel like you are the hero of the movie about Indiana Jones!

Wadi Rum

A trip to Wadi Rum is like a trip to another planet. This has been noticed by Hollywood directors, who are filming scenes here on Mars. The best way to appreciate the rocky and sandy landscapes is to be appreciated from a bird's-eye view, and it will be unforgettable experience. Here, as thousands of years ago, you can see the wandering Bedouins in the middle of the desert, whose way of life so very different from what we're used to us.

Jordan

Biblical places

Almost all the biblical events took place in Jordan, which is why it attracts travelers and history buffs from all over the world.

This is where the town of Jerash is located, where Jesus turned water into wine. At the bottom of the Jordan River is the site of Jesus' baptism, just a few meters from the border with Israel. Mount Nebo is the site of Moses' death, where there is an ancient church and the most spectacular vantage point in Jordan.

As you travel through these places, it's as if you're the pages of the Bible and read them as if stories come to life repeatedly.

Jordan

Memories Aicha Camp

In this place you will forget about all the typical associations to the word "camping". These are luxurious tents, located right in the heart Wadi Rum desert. Resting in such an exotic place with comfort: exquisite oriental design, air conditioning, fantastic views of the red sands and other amenities that are in no way inferior hotel of the highest class.
