Dagestan

Most of you have seen Sarykum. In the famous movie "The White Sun desert". In terms of its size, this sandy is second only to the Great Erg in the sands of the Sahara.

Dagestan

Sulak Canyon

Sulak Canyon surpasses the depth of the Grand Canyon in the United States! Leo Tolstoy, Mikhail Lermontov, and Alexander Dumas dedicated their poems and notes to this place. From below flows the river Sulak, which from a height seems quite a small mountain stream, but the most full-flowing river in Dagestan. And from above the mighty eagles, which have an even more even more breathtaking.

Ekranoplane «Lun»

The screen plane is known around the world as "The Caspian Monster". This winged craft could fly over the water at speeds of up to 500 km/h. The huge craft weighing 243 tons and 74 meters in was built in 1986, but fortunately it was never used for military purposes. The project was scrapped, and the "Moon" went to military base. In 2020 the construction of the "Patriot" park was started in Derbent. Became its main exhibit, majestically on the shore of the Caspian Sea.

Dagestan cuisine

Dagestan is the very multinational republic in the Russian Federation, so and the cuisine here is very diverse. Dagestan cuisine is the alluring smell of baked goods, the juiciness of lamb, the piquancy of rare spices and unique hospitality. For every restaurant is honored to welcome guests at any time of the day or night and serve the best the best dishes. Must try Lezghinian bread, khinkal, chudu, kurze, and after you can taste a spoonful of homemade Urbech with tea.

Nyryn-Kala

In Derbent, the oldest "living" city of the world, there is a citadel Nyryn-Kala, which protected the city since the VI century. In the Middle Ages, Derbent was crucial point of the silk road and the largest port city. This fortress is a living witness of the great migrations of peoples, which UNESCO recognized as a heritage of humanity.
